

SPRING TERM 2020

Welcome back to the new term and a Happy new year to you all. I am back from my adventures in Australia and raring to go. Mrs T needs to have a medical procedure during the first week of the term and some classes may have to be cancelled or rearranged. You will be contacted directly if this affects you.

We have a busy term ahead with examinations and some workshops planned and we will be starting the preparations for our biannual school performance at the Princess Alexandra Theatre in Yarm on the weekend of the 4 & 5 July.

We are planning to have a Musical Theatre and an Acro dance workshop and another Ballroom workshop as it was such great fun. Details to follow.

We regularly post notices on our Facebook page and for those of you not on social media, notices will be posted on the blog page of our school website as well as posted at classes. We are always more than happy to answer queries via email or text message.

A very busy term ahead so lets get cracking!
